

Women's History Month

Women Who Changed Maritime History Exhibit

Daily, throughout March, 9:30AM-5PM.

In the Visitor Center. Free.

Photo exhibition illustrating the often overlooked impact women have had on maritime history.

Suffragette March and Ladies Salon

Saturday, March 13, Noon and 3PM. On Hyde Street Pier and aboard the Ark houseboat. Free.

Turn back the clock to 1901 and experience a costumed reenactment of a suffragette march in support of votes for women. At 2PM, join a salon of Victorian women as they discuss issues ranging from corsetry to voting rights.

Women At Sea

Sundays, March 14 and 29, 3PM-3:45PM.

Aboard the historic ship Balclutha at Hyde Street Pier. $5 Adults, ages 15 and under free.

During the Age of Sail, the feminine presence was not typically part of a ship's crew. However, a captain would sometimes bring along his wife and daughters, which created a family atmosphere. Discover family life at sea on this tour through the Balclutha.
